

Chapter Five

1. Vocabulary: Adventurous verbs

Action is an important part of an adventure story. The author adds action by her choice of verbs. Choose five verbs to use in five action-filled, adventurous sentences:

cautioned	threaten	rustling
groaning	disappearing	shuddered
loomed	gutted	dying

2. Similes create Word Pictures

A simile is a comparison or contrast that makes a connection between two things by using the words “like” or “as”. Find three similes used to describe Niagara Falls on pages 77-78. Record them and choose one to illustrate the word picture it put into your mind.

3. Rattler Research

Search Canadian web sites for rattler information. Now create a Rattlesnake Safety brochure by recording facts under these headings:

How to Identify;
What to Do If You See One in the Wild.

4. Predicting:

As Lesharo explains why his tribe is called the skidi, can you predict what the book’s title, Sister to the Wolf will mean. Explain your answer in two to three sentences.
