Elyssa Gets First Teeth

In August, Elyssa's first tooth broke through, and were we ever happy it was finally out! Elyssa's first tooth was her bottom right centre tooth. Not far after came her bottom left tooth.

We are now happy to announce that Elyssa's top centre right tooth has completely poked through and the left one isn't far behind it.

We spent many sleepless nights soothing Elyssa's teething pain and many a teething cookie was had.

Elyssa now enjoys eating her cookies and soft fruits and vegetables without any trouble. Congratulations Elyssa!

New Wal-Mart Opens in Woodstock

On Thursday, October 3 the new Wal-Mart opened here in Woodstock. Our whole family was there to take in the experience.

The store was VERY busy. Elyssa enjoyed picking out many things that she seemed to think we needed and a good time was had by all.

Elyssa's First Halloween

This year is Elyssa's very first Halloween. We have 7 pumpkins to carve! Elyssa is going to help us hand out candy. She is going to be a bunny rabbit. We will be sure to post pictures on the site next month.

Plans for Elyssa's Birthday in the Works

December 10 is Elyssa's birthday. We are trying to arrange plans for a party on Saturday, December 7. We hope everyone can attend. Invitations will be in the mail in early November.
